

20 years of Nobel Prize

José Saramago

"who with parables sustained by imagination, compassion and irony continually enables us once again to apprehend an elusive reality."

(Swedish Academy Press release, October 8, 1998)

Tuesday, October 9th, 18h

Amphitheatre of the National Library of Serbia

18:00

Literary talk about the work of José Saramago

(simultaneous translation to English provided)

Participating: Ljiljana Šop, literary critic, Sanja Milić, editor at Radio Belgrade, Dejan Mihajlović, editor at Laguna publishing house and Jasmina Nešković, translator of Saramago's works; moderator Tanja Vučković, PR manager at Laguna publishing house

19:00 – 19:15

Cocktail break

19:15

Documentary film "José and Pilar"

(2010, Miguel Gonçalves Mendes)

Free entrance